To the batch of 2020: You will prevail.

A 100 years ago, the class of 1920 graduated in to the end of a deadly pandemic. They had overcome new challenges and in all cases they prevailed. The long arc of history tells us that, we have every reason to be hopeful. So be hopeful.....

Be open, be impatient, be hopeful. If you can do that, history will remember the class of 2020. Not for what you lost, but for what you changed. You have the chance to change everything. I am optimistic you will".

-Sundar Pichai CEO Google- commencement speech for Batch 2020.
